

Year 2 Home Learning Final Week

Well I can't quite believe that I am writing the very last post for lessons this year. You've all done incredibly well during this difficult and trying time; (so have the grown ups too 😊). I'm really proud of each and every one of you. As we begin our final countdown to the holidays, let's share some work one last time;

This week I would like to come off plan a little and ask you to think about your favourite memories of St. Michael's. I'd like you to write about your top ten favourite moments. Maybe when you've written them down, you could read them out, whilst a grown up records you. Wouldn't it be wonderful to share a video of them on here for us all to hear!

I'd also like to do one final reading challenge and ask you to read a book a day using Oxford Owl e-books or your own favourites from home. Add a post each day to tell me what you've read and I'll pop a sticker on my special chart for you. I wonder how many of you will receive a gold certificate this week!

We are really looking forward to seeing you all on Thursday and I've already planned some super games for us to play.

Stay safe everyone. 😊

BE GRATEFUL FOR AND ONE
OF THEM IS YOU.
